CLOSE OF LENT IS AT HAND

Penitential Season of Forty Days Will End With Tonight.

AWAIT EASTER DAWN.

Music Appropriate to the Occasion Will be Rendered in Nearly All City Churches Tomorrow.

The forty days of Lent will pass away tonight, and at dawn tomorrow the glorious Easter Day will be hailed by millions throughout the Christian world. As is the custom the services in most of the churcehs will be especially interesting and appropriate to the occasion. The choirs have prepared special music and sermons on the resurrection and what it means to mankind will be delivered.

While conditions at present are not ominous, there is no telling what the next twelve hours may bring forth meteorologically, as April is an uncertain month.

While the great mass of men and women are enthused at the advent of Easter, the little ones also imbibe the spirit of the occasion, and the exercises in the Sunday schools bring joy and gladness to the young.

The music which will be rendered at the churches tomorrow follows.

How to be Happy

Keep your disposition happy and always have a chum,
And choose companions from those friends who are never feeling glum,
Love to work and labor, earn more than it takes to live;
Have something to cheer up others, have something to spend and give.
Of friends there will be many to enjoy what you can earn,
And they will never leave you while you do the friendly turn.
The above is good philosophy and in my effort to live up to it I am reaching out for more business.

Hon. Charles C. Carlin Will Have No Opposition for Congress From This District

Hon. Charles C. Carlin, congressman from the Eighth Congressional District, will have no opposition in the Democratic primary for renomination to Congress and as the Democratic nomination in this district is equivalent to election, the district being overwhelmingly Democratic, his re election is assured.

Today at noon was the last time for the filing of the names of candidates with the Eighth District Democratic Committee, of which Raleigh T. Green, of Culpeper, editor of the Culpeper Exponent, is secretary.

There has been talk of opposition to Mr. Carlin, the Progressive Democrats of Virginia having threatened to place opponents in the field of all of the present incumbents not lined up with their organization, but when the time expired today no name had been presented to the committee other than Mr. Carlin's.

The committee will meet within the next few days when Mr. Carlin will be declared the nominee of the party.

Mr. Carlin was elected to the Sixteenth Congress, November 5, 1907, defeating R. Lindsay Gordon, of Louisa, and Judge C. E. Nicol, of Prince

HON. CHARLES C. CARLIN,

Who Will Have no Opposition For Re-election to Congress.

William, in the Democratic primary, and Ernest L. Howell, Republican, in the general election. He was re-elected to the sixty-first congress over R. L. Gordon, in the Democratic primary, and J. W. Gregg, Republican, in the general election, and has since had no opposition.

The record of Mr. Carlin during the seven years he has represented this distict in Congress has proven eminently satisfactory, and many who preferred other candidates when he first entered the arena have since become his staunch supporters. The fact that during the past four years he has been allowed to succeed himself is all that need be referred to so far as his credentials is concerned. While he has ever been awake to the interests of his district and constituents, Mr. Carlin is a recognized power in the House of Representatives, and was placed upon the committee on the judiciary by former Speaker Cannon, and is often called into consultation with the President on important national affairs.

DEATH OF CAPT. BRYANT

Well-Known and Esteemed Resident Passes Away at an Early Hour This Morning

Captain Herbert Bryant, one of Alexandria's most prominent citizens and a distinguished Confederate veteran, died at his home, 300 North Washington street, this morning following a long illness.

The funeral will take place on Monday at noon from St. Paul's church.

John Carlyle Herbert Bryant was a son of the late William Bryant. He was born in Lexington, Rockbridge county, 71 years ago. At the breaking out of the war between the states he was in the employ of J. P. Barnsdale, dealer in fertilizers and agricultural implements, on the east side of Seventh street, near Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington. He went south at the beginning of hostilities and became adjutant of the Seventeenth Virginia Infantry, composed mostly of Alexandrians, and later was a member of the staff of General M. D. Corse with the rank of Captain. He served throughout the war, and settled in Alexandria at its close.

Captain Bryant opened an agricultural house on the north side of King street, between Lee and Union where he conducted business until a few years ago, when he retired, relinquishing the business to his son, Arthur H. Bryant. He also established a large fertilizer plant at the foot of Duke

His martial spirit was not quenched after the close of the civil war, and in 1871, when the Alexandria Greys were organized, he became captain with the late Arthur C. Kell first lieutenant. The command was subsequently disbanded and was succeeded by the Alexandria Light Infantry with Francis L. Smith as captain.

Captain Bryant occupied several complimentary municipal positions in recent years. He was at one time a member of the Board of Aldermen from the Third Ward, and chairman of the committee on streets, was later a police commisioner from that ward, and member of the City School board, having been for several years chairman of the school board. He had from its organization been a member of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans. He had also been a vestryman of St. Paul's Church and one of the managers of the Alexandria Hospi-

His wife, daughter of the late Henry B. Claggett, died in 1886. He is survived by four children—Arthur H Bryant, Mrs. Thomas J. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. John Downes and Mrs. Fairfax Leary.

The members of R. E. Lee Camp C. V. will assemble at St. Paul's in uniform, Monday, at 11.45 A.M., to attend the funeral of their late comrade.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

BODY FOUND AND MONEY GONE

C. R. Gusler is Slain and House Burned in Franklin County.

Roanoke, Va., April 11.—While C. R. Gusler and family were asleep at a tobacco barn some distance from his home, at Ferrum, Franklin county, on Wednesday, stripping tobacco. Mr. Gusler left the barn for the house, giving some excuse for going. That was the last seen of him alive. Neighbors saw flames going up from the house and raised the alarm. When they got to the house they found Gusler outside the house, dead from a shot gun wound, his head practically blown off. The house was soon destroyed. Gusler had with him a trunk in which he kept his private belongings, supposed to have contaiend a new suit of clothes and $800 in money, which were missing.

No one saw Gusler from the time he left the barn until his body was found. There are only theories as to his death. He may have found some one who had the trunk in the yard, and who, when caught in the act, killed Gusler and set fire to the house to cover up the crime, or Gusler, in a temporary fit of insanity, may have set fire to the house and then killed himself. The latter theroy is most generally accepted in the neighborhood. Gusler was about 50 years old, and in comfortable circumstances. His house was worth about $1,200, and he had a good farm all paid for, and as his domestic affairs seemingly were pleasant, no reason can be found for the suicide theory. When found the gun was lying across Gusler' sbody and a forked stick was beside it,which may have been used to discharge the gun. He apparently placed the gun under his chin and used the stick to pull the trigger. Death was probably instantaneous. Gusler is survived by his wife and several children.

Dog Almost Kills Lad

York, Pa., April 11.—Calling at a house in the South end yesterday afternoon to sell egg dyes, 10-year-old Lewis Gottleib, was attacked by a bull dog and so terribly torn on the face and throat that he will probably die.

He was taken to the York hospital, where his father, Moses Gotleib, lay on an adjoining cot, recovering from the effects of a dose of Paris green, taken in mistake for headache powder a week ago.

The dog belonged to Mrs. Bessie Dale, and sprang past her through the door as she opened it in response to the boy's rap. Before she could interfere the child was on his back with the animal's teeth in ihs throat.

A couple of passersby, after much difficulty, beat off the dog, and it was shot. One of the boy's eyes was torn partly out.

ALEXANDRIA HOSPITAL.

At the meeting of the Board of Managers on Thursday the following resolutions were passed.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Mary G. Boothe, late President of the Board of Managers of our Hospital has left behind her a record of a life filled with noble deeds and kind acts.

Her character was most interesting because it combined a strong intellect with a courteous, geneial manner, deep-rooted sense of honor, cordial sympathies, and a tender affectionate disposition, and we desire to put on record an expression of our appreciation of the beauty of her character and the elevated plane on which she acted in all the relations of life.

Her interest and work in the Alexandria Hospital during the last years of her life will never be excelled, and in her death we have lost a wise counsellor and a consistent friend. It is therefore resolved that a copy of this tribute to her memory be sent to her family, printed in the Gazette, and that it be entered upon the records belonging to the Hospital.

Committee, Mrs. Albert Bryan, Mrs. Frank King, Corresponding Secretary.

PANIC AT A CIRCUS.

Spectators Stampede When Beasts Start Battle in Arena.

Suffolk, Va., April 11.—Five hundred men, women, and children made a mad rush for safety last night during a circus performance when ten lions in an arena engaged in a battle.

The trainer, in attempting to separate the beasts, had his clothing torn in several places, and the spectators, fearing the animals would get out of the arena and attack the crowd, ran in all directions.

Men, women, and children, unable to get out through the regular exit, crawled under the tent, and in some instances cut the canvas with pocketknives.

The screams of the women added to the terror of the children, many of whom became lost from their parents. The women ran through the streets of Suffolk screaming, and were not quieted until they were safe in their own homes or those of their neighbors.

Bill Mortgage Bill.

Richmond, April 11.—A copy of the $200,000,000 mortgage gold bond bill of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company was filed in Chancery Court yesterday. This is done under the law, which requires the filing to be made in the various counties and cities through which the road runs.

The taxes for the court services and other incidentals was paid in Petersburg, amounting to $6,147

This sum was recently secured by the company through the United States Trust Company, of New York, and is to be used for improvements along the line of the company, and in the purchase of rolling stock.

Fire at Windsor.

Suffolk, Va., April 11.—Fire broke out early Thursday morning in the store of K. E. Barrett & Co., Windsor, Va., quickly spreading to their warehouses. Both buildings and contents were entirely consumed. The boarding house of Mrs. L. F. Carr, I. E. Joyner's store and warehouse, and a barber shop, owned by K. K. Barrett Company were also destroyed. The loss is estimated at $20,000, partly covered by insurance.

Result of Racing.

Newark, N. J., April 11.—The loss of one life, that of the youngest person to figure in the tragedy; injuries necessitating hospital care for four persons, and the arrest of one man on a manslaughter charge resulted from an attempt of the drivers of two automobiles to race on Prospect avenue, at the top of Orange Mountain, late yesterday. The 4-year-old son of Frank C. Palmer, of Orange, was the one killed, while the child's father, mother, 6-year-old brother and Mrs. James Regan, of Orange, are in the Orange Memorial Hospital, the first two with broken bones.

John Hodge, the driver of the other car, is held under $5,000 bail, accused of manslaughter.

Heldup and Shot,

Norfolk, Va., April 11.—A series of holdups last night in the seventh ward resulted in the serious shooting of Wailes Hank, a young attorney, who resisted. Hank was shot through the base of the jaw but attending physicians are hopeful that his brain was not injured.

Mr. Hank was returning to his home about 11 o'clock, on 34th street, when he was halted by three white men and ordered to throw up his hands. He at first thought it a joke, and complied, but when one of the men attempted to search him, he resisted. He was then shot, but the approach of others prevented the men from going through his pockets. The men made their escape.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo positively assured Congressman Carter Glass yesterday that the office of collector of internal revenue for Western district of Va., to which John M. Hart, of Roanoke, recently was apointed will be removed from Abingdon to Roanoke.

The entire length of a 90-foot rail, red hot, passed through the body of Charles Miller, of Bradock, Pa., as he worked at a finishing mill in the Edgar Thomson Steel Works yesterday. Miller lived half an hour.

Tudie Arnold, of Blytheville, Ark., accused of having 16 wives, was sentenced in the Federal Court at Fort Worth, Texas, yesterday to 10 years' imprisonment on a technical charge of violating the Mann White Slave act.

PROF. SAVAGE A SUICIDE.

Head of Female College Shoots Himself at Hampton, Va.

Newport News, Va., April 11.—Prof. Henry H. Savage, owner and principal of Hampton Female College, a preparatory school for girls, committed suicide in his study at the college yesterday morning by sending a bullet from a .38-calibre revolver into his right temple. He died within less than three minutes after firing the shot.

While Professor Savage left no note to explain his act, members of his family and the teachers at the college say he had been despondent over the prospects of his school, which, added to financial worries, probably unbalanced his mind.

Just as the teachers and pupils were preparing to sit down to the breakfast table they were startled by the report of a revolver coming from the study of the principal. The Rev. Charles Friend, pastor of the Hampton Presbyterian Church, who makes his home at the college, was the first person to reach Mr. Savage after the shooting. The minister found him stretched out on the floor with an ugly gash in his right temple, while the revolver was lying nearby.

Coroner Vanderslice decided that it was a case of suicide and that an inquest would be unnecessary.

Mr. Savage was a graduate of the University of Virginia and a musician of ability. He had been the head of a female college at Liberty, Mo., but fire destroyed his property there and his losses were so heavy that he could not rebuild. He often complained of his failures to put the college here on a successful financial basis.

Professor Savage was born in Norfolk 44 years ago and went to Missouri to teach following his graduation from the university. He is survived by his widow and one son, Stewart Savage.

EASTER CHIMES DRAWING NEAR.

Bells in houses of Christian worship which have been silent since Thursday will ring out again tomorrow morning, when glorious Easter will be hailed by myriads throughout the civilized world as commemorative of the resurrection of Jesus Christ upon which fact hinges the faith of the innumerable hosts who look for a similar victory over death. The last forty days have formed a season in which the great mass of the Christian world have endeavored to concentrate their minds and affections upon the last scenes in the mundane career of the Author of faith.

That Easter was a season of rejoicing long before the Christian era is a fact none will attempt to dispute, but the manner in which it was then observed was of a nature to turn the minds of the thoughtful to beings superior to themselves, as it does now. In classic days the story of the killing of Niobe's children was an allegorical way of telling of the destruction of winter's winds, snow and ice by the sun god, and the advent of gentle spring. The resurrection of the Man God and the putting down of the last enemy is a far more tangible manner in which to celebrate the advent of this welcome season, and the passing away of frigid waves. The swelling of the buds and the reanimation of nature after the cruel winter which has cast the mantle of death over plant and insect life naturally enthuses all.

From the days of the Garden of Eden the human race has been casting their eyes to the heavens, realizing that there are celestial powers far beyond this mundane sphere. Our first parents aspired to be as the gods, and during the four thousand years which followed up to the advent of the Christian dispensation the number of deities was multiplied and all sorts of fancies were entertained concerning their imaginary visits to this planet. When Paul and Barnabas visited Lystra we are told the former caused a man who had been a cripple and unable to walk from his birth to stand up, walk and leap. The people of the city immediately exclaimed, "The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. And they called Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercury."

In the fulness of time the Son of God did come down and mingle with men, but he in no manner represented the effigy in the temple at Olympia, nor had he wings on his ankles.

It is said there were thirty thousand deities in Greece when Christ appeared on earth. Among the last words of the latter to the human race were uttered on an island in the Ægean Sea, the birth place of many myths. The announcement "I am alpha and omega, the beginning and the end," scattered the inmates of the Pantheon to the four winds, and there is not a soul on earth today who gives them reverence.

DEATH HARVEST OF WINTER.

We recently called attention to the fact that the winter of 1913-1914 will be remembered as a season during which many old and well-known Alexandrians were called upon to pay the debt of nature. Among the number were several octogenarians and in one instance a nonagenarian. A number of residents who had reached the three-score-and-ten mile post were gathered to the fathers.

Captain Herbert Bryant, who had been critically ill for a long time, kept away the grim destroyer until an early hour this morning when his eyes closed in death.

While those who have preceded him during the past few months were useful citizens and performed well their respective parts in life, there are some passages in the life of Captain Bryant which are suggestive and exemplify the practical ideas which should animate all good citizens. While the deceased held a number of complimentary positions in his time, he never aspired to one of emolument although at times requested to become a candidate for Mayor. He was a Councilman, member of the Police Board, School Board, a church vestryman, one of the Managers of the Alexandria Hospital, and filled other positions in his time.

Captain Bryant was a member of the Board of Aldermen about twenty years ago and served as chairman of the committee on streets. More labor is expended in this position than in others which fall to the lot of Councilmen. A progressive movement, however, about that time brought about his defeat for re-election. His successor soon resigned, and some of the captain's friends endeavored to induce him to run again, but he refused in these words: "I think it is the duty of every good citizen to take a complimentary position when it is brought to him. I acted upon that principle and served as a Councilman. I think I have performed my duty."

NEW BOY SCOUT TROOP.

Troop No. 2, of Alexandria, Has Been Organized With Dr. J. H. Botzer Scoutmaster.

An important meeting of Troop No. 2, Boy Scouts of this city, was held Thursday night in the Westminster building. Arrangements were commenced for the production of some sort of a social to be given about a month from now. Two persons of this city will take charge of the entertainment, which is called the "Old Maids' Convention." The comedy to be put on to raise money for uniforms. The remainder of the amount needed will probably be put in by the individual members of the troop.

This troop has only been organized three weeks, the boys being sworn in and made familiar with the Scout law Sunday a week ago. Dr. J. H. Bitzer is Scoutmaster, with Dr. Llewellyn Powell assistant scoutmaster. Hirst Hayes is president of the organization and Wesley Bitzer secretary-treasurer. The troop is divided into three patrols of eight each, the Blazing Arrow, the Silver Fox, and the Red Trailer patrols, led by Hirst Hayes, William Boswell, and Robert Hancock, respectively, who each have an assistant patrol leader. The scouts have use of the Westminster gymnasium in the morning, and from 7:30 until 8.45 hold athletic classes there. The dues are five and ten cents, besides the registration fee of a quarter.

Meetings of each separate patrol will be held during the week to give the scouts the tenderfoot examination. The next meeting of the troop will be held Sunday week.

Look for the TRIANGLE

LOOK for this triangle before you buy any heater.

It is the trademark of the latest model of the Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater.

It is the sign of the greatest improvements ever made in oil heating devices.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

The Perfection Heater, as now made, gives more heat, holds more oil, is better made and works better than any other heater on the market.

It has a wide, shallow oil font, which allows the oil to pass readily up the wick and insures reliable, unchanging flame and heat, whether the font is full or nearly empty.

The Perfection is smokeless, because the patent locking flame-spreader prevents the wick being turned up high enough to smoke. It is easy to re-wick, because the carrier and wick are combined—just turn out the old and slip in the new.

Indicator tells how much oil is in the font. Filler plug is pushed in like a cork—no screw, no thread to wear. Attractive latticed window frame.

The Perfection Heater is finished in vitreous turquoise-blue enamel or plain steel drums; looks well, lasts well, easy to carry wherever wanted.

A Neglected Cold Often Affects the Lungs

Many serious cases of Throat or Lung Trouble can be directly traced to a cough or cold which has been neglected. If you notice that a cough persists in clinging to you take warning. If you neglect trying to stop this supposed trivial trouble the throat and lungs later become affected. In many cases Eckman's Alterative has been the means of bringing permanent relief. Investigate this case:—

Saratoga, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: For five or six years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Lung Trouble by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit. At Christmas time, 1900, I was not expected to live. Calling Dr. H. H. McCarthy, he advised the use of Eckman's Alterative, which I took with excellent results. I have gained in weight. I go out in all weathers and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alterative."

(Affidavit) JAS. W. KANALY.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Stubborn Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Easter Holiday Good Friday and Easter Monday—Meeting of Literary Society.

Pupils in the school were given holiday for Good Friday and Easter Monday and will not return to school until Tuesday. This gives the faculty and pupils a little rest, and it is hoped every one will enjoy his or her holiday to the utmost, and come back next Tuesday prepared to work hard, for there is only about eight weeks left to the term, and those, whose present work points to their repeating next year, had better hustle to make a passing mark.

The regular meeting of the Alexandria High School Literary Society will be held in the school building tonight at 7:30. All members are urged to be present. The subject for debate which has been announced before is on the big question at the present time—the Panama Canal tolls repeal. A good debate is expected on this subject: "Resolved, That the Senate should pass the bill, as passed by the House." The affirmative will be upheld by Miss Mabel Henderson and Frank Johnston, and the negative by Miss Flora Glasgow and Ashby Bladen. Declamations will be rendered by Otis Sunderlin, Miss Corinne Reardon, and John Reardon. The committee having in charge the challenging of two schools to debate wioth our Literary Society will make its report, and it is probable that the work of choosing the A. H. S. representatives in the debates will soon be commenced.

The total eceipts and the amount cleared on "Everystudent" and "The "Princess," the two plays recently produced by the High School Players, has not been exactly estimated as yet About $150 was taken in, however, but of this amount a little less than a hundred dollars was cleared. One-quarter of this money was given to each athletic association of the High School, and the remaining half to the Literary Society, under whose auspices the plays were given. Arrangements are now being made for the production of "The Princess" in Rockville, Md.

A called meeting of the Boys' Athletic Association was held Wednesday afternoon after school. It was decided at the meeting to make immediate purchase of 1913 baseball, 1913 football, and 1913-14 basketball letters, as they had not been given out or ever purchased as yet. The names to whom the letters go were read out at a football banquet in the Westminster Building last fall. The dual meet which Technical High School of Washington asked to have with the A. H. S. was declined and because there will be no big field meet at Manassas this year, the A. H. S. will have an invitation meet at home, asking a number of the high schools of the state to take part. A committee was appointed on this meet, consisting of Boswell, Hayes and Byrne. The meet is expected to be held on Saturday May 9. The entry fee in this meet will be 25 cents. The association was informed that two track men were to be sent to Lexington to compete in a track meet at Washington and Lee University this sping,and that track team pactice was to begin very shortly. The action, allowing boys of the graded school to take part in High School athletics, was repealed. Nearly all the clauses of the constitution have now been adopted, and its measures will be hereafter put in effect to the letter.

A goodly number of students from the High School attended the game between the Washington Baseball team and the Cardinals in a body Tuesday. They went as the guests of the Washington club, and greatly enjoyed the professional vs. amateur game, which was not so big a farce as last year's game. The score was 19 to 3, in favor of Washington.

The High School regrets the illness of Miss Hoffman, and hopes that she may be able to come back to school Tuesday.

The Alexandria High School second team defeated the second team of St. John's College, of Washington, at the Baseball Park Thursday, by the score of 11 to 6. This being the first real game of the second team its pitchers were not allowed to pitch more than three innings apiece for fear of injuring their arms on the cold day The game was very close up to the seventh inning, Alexandria leading—5 to 4. In the seventh, however, the High School increased their lead to nine runs, and in the eighth to eleven, St. John's only making two more runs. The hitting of Fawcett and the fielding of Bitzer for the A. H. S. and the playing of Hardigan for St. John's featured the game. The batteries were: A. H. S. Lambdin, Barnett, Swan and Haynes and Fawcett; St. John's, Ricarda and Hardigan. The second team's next game is with the first team on Saturday. They will tackle St. John's again at Washington on next Wednesday.

The A. H. S. first team defeated the second team Saturday by the score of 5 to 4. The batteries were: Second team, Raison and Nalls; first team, Haynes, Swan and Schafer.

An important meeting of the Girls' Athletic Association was called Thursday by Miss Mabel Henderson president, and was held in Mr. Prettyman's room.

The Alexandria High School Baseball nine will play the Jefferson School for Boys of Charlottesville at the Park at 10 A. M., Easter Monday. The admission will be 25 cents. They will also play the McKinley Manual Training School at the Park Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Admission 15 cents.

New Haven, April 11.—Charging that the refusal of Miss Ellen King, a lady's maid in an Orange street family, to marry him, had caused him to commit the deed, Thomas Alderdice, a foreman employed by the New Haven Railroad, killed himself Friday at his lodgings by taking poison. He left a note which said:

STARVED STANDING ON HEAD.

Body Wedged Between Piles of Lumber for a Week.

Philadelphia, April 10.—After standing on his head between two lumber piles for several days in the Collins lumber yard, Twelfth street and Glenwood avenue, Arthur Ward, 60 years old, formerly an employe of the yard, died from starvation a week ago. His body was discovered yesterday. It was so tightly wedged between the two stacks that many of the boards had to be removed before it could be pulled out. It is thought that Ward fell headlong into the narrow gap a week ago Saturday night while searching a place to sleep. It has been his custom to sleep in the yard frequently since he lost his job some time ago because of irregular habits. Owing to the absence of employes from the yard on Sunday, it is believed, his cries for help were not heard and that by Monday he had become so weak that he could no longer call for aid.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Because the soft coal operators and miners of the Central Pennsylvania district could not agree on a wage scale, practically all of the mines of that region will be closed by the operators after the end of the day's work today, and will remain closed until a wage scale is agreed upon. About 64,000 men will be thrown out of work.

President Wilson's first day of rest in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains was spent in country fashion. He golfed in the morning, and went driving in the afternoon with Mrs Wilson and his daughter, Mrs. F. B. Sayre. Miss Margaret Wilson indulged in horseback riding in the afternoon, going far up on the mountain trail. The meals of the President's party are served in their suites and so far the hundreds of fashionable visitors who have come to White Sulphur Springs for Easter, have scarcely had a glimpse of the President or any members of his party. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, Miss Eleanor Wilson's fiance, may spend Easter Sunday at the White House, although all plans are being kept secret.

The best sleighing of the year was being enjoyed on the roads between Dexter and Guilford and Dover, Maine, yesterday. There are two feet or more of snow on the ground.

The War Department yesterday reported adversely to the House on the proposal to improve further the Potomac river from Washington to Cmberland, Md. The army engineers advised that the commerce on the river would not justify the large cost of the improvement project.

Robert Higgins, of Aledo, Ill., who last January shot and killed his wife because of his infatuation for his sixteen-year-old stepdaughter, Julia Flake, author of the "Come over and kill Mamma" letters, yesterday pleaded guilty and threw himself upon the mercy of the court. It is expected he will be given a life sentence.

Five-year-old Lena Cicione, the daughter of John Cicione, a tailor of Richmond Hill, Long Island, started to cross the street in front of her home to join other children. As she got to the middle of the street, a horse standing nearby ran away. In her terror the little girl dropped a doll she was carrying. When she got to the sidewalk she realized her loss. "My dolly I must get her," she sobbed. A man tried to save her, but he was too late. The child, forgetting her own danger, ran directly in front of the horse, just as she stopped to pick up the doll, the horse crushed her to the pavement. At the hospital it was said she was internally injured, and would probably die.

GIRL, GARTER AND ROBBERY.

Subway Cashier, Samaritan to Her Sex, Loses $30.

Boston, April 11.—Because of her willingness to assist a pretty girl who declared her garter had slipped off Miss Sadie Singer, a ticket seller in the Scoley Square subway station, is mourning the loss of $30.

The young woman approached the booth blushing and asked if she might step inside, explaining the circumstances. Miss Singer opened the door and the pretty stranger adjusted her "difficulties" as the custodian sold tickets to the crowd. After she had thanked Miss Singer and departed, the latter discovered that her handbag, in which she had placed the company's cash, had vanished with the visitor.

LAD SLAIN, OTHER HELD.

Police Believe Murder Was Planned in Dandelion Hunt.

Chester, Pa., April 11.—Joseph Devico, a boy, died in the Chester Hospital last night from the effects of a bullet wound, and Sebastian Lucas, a lad in knee trousers, is held at the House of Detention by the police authorities, suspected of the shooting.

Young Lucas admits that the boys had gone to the fields in search of dandelions, with a bag, revolver and knife in the possession of Lucas, and the police believe that the trip was planned by young Lucas to get even with Devico, as they had previously quarreled.

After the shooting Lucas threw the revolver and knife away, and he will be taken to the scene tomorrow to locate them.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
